Psalm 51

David committed a very grave sin. He had relations with a married woman, she conceived his child. He then tried to trick her husband into thinking it was his child and when that did not work had her husband killed. Most of us know this story, what the bible does not reveal is the thoughts of David. Did he feel remorse for his actions? Possibly he did we do not know, however, when Nathan the prophet appeared at his door David realized the magnitude of his sin. Nathan also revealed to David the consequences of his actions, and they were severe.

It is at this time that David penned the fifty-first Psalm. Parts of this Psalm are often quoted, but most do not know the context of the text. It is a Psalm asking for forgiveness and transformations. You see under The Law, David had committed a sin that was unforgivable, it was premeditated sin and under The Law the one committing defiant sin was to be put out of the assembly. Numbers 15:30–31 30 'But the person who does anything defiantly, whether he is native or an alien, that one is blaspheming the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from among his people. 31 'Because he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his guilt will be on him.' "

God, however, had mercy on him, he spared his life. Despite of that there would be a price to pay, but David still rejoices in the righteousness and mercy of God. Due to God's mercy David could look to the future with hope.

Psalm 51:7–12 7 Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. 8 Make me to hear joy and gladness, Let the bones which You have broken rejoice. 9 Hide Your face from my sins And blot out all my iniquities. 10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, And renew a steadfast spirit within me. 11 Do not cast me away from Your presence And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me. 12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation And sustain me with a willing spirit.

The hope of David is magnified to us through Jesus Christ. What was impossible under the Law, is now possible by the blood of Christ. We truly can live the psalm of David, to be cleansed, to be created new, to look the future despite the transgressions of our past. Praise be to God who so loved us.
