Prejudice

Prejudice is a word that we hear on almost a daily basis. A good definition of prejudice is “a preconceived opinion that is not based on reason or actual experience.” The word has an etymology in Old Latin praeiudicium "prior judgment.

It is my experience that if there is a group of people who fit this definition, it is members of the church. If one of us stumbles or makes a mistake, we are all hypocrites. If one of us stands up for our faith in public, we are bible thumpers. If we criticize sin in the world or in someone’s life, we are judgmental. If we refuse to be involved in sin, we are do-gooders.

Jesus understood this concept well, Luke 7:33–35 [33] “For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon!’ [34] “The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ [35] “Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children.”

You and I, as Christians, must live our lives the best we can. People will always judge us, even as they tell us that we cannot judge them. They will call us names and group all who profess to believe in a single category. They will blame us all when an act of violence is committed by a professing Christian. “Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children.” God who knows our hearts and is the only judge that truly matters in our lives. He is the one we will stand before. If you live your life in a way that you know Jesus is proud of you, do not worry about what others think, especially those who do not know you as an individual.

A wise woman once told me, “those who know you, know the truth, everyone else does not matter.” No one knows you better than Jesus Christ!!
