Psalm 51

The sin of David and Bathsheba is one of the greatest accounts of defiant sin in the bible. Many would ask, "How could David be a man after God's own heart and commit such a sin?" The answer to that question does not lie in the sin.

David became enamored with his power, the very prosperity and peace that God had blessed him with became his snare. He was at his palace when his men were out fighting the war. It was in this state that he was tempted and gave in to sin. This power enabled him to cover up his sin and hide it from men. He had pulled it off, so it seemed, but God knew, and Nathan was dispatched to speak God's words.

David was convicted of his sin by the words of Nathan. In this repentance, we see the heart of God. The 51st Psalm shows his heart.

Psalm 51:1-13 [1] Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; According to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions. [2] Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity And cleanse me from my sin. [3] For I know my transgressions, And my sin is ever before me. [4] Against You, You only, I have sinned And done what is evil in Your sight, So that You are justified when You speak And blameless when You judge. [5] Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, And in sin my mother conceived me. [6] Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being, And in the hidden part You will make me know wisdom. [7] Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. [8] Make me to hear joy and gladness, Let the bones which You have broken rejoice. [9] Hide Your face from my sins And blot out all my iniquities. [10] Create in me a clean heart, O God, And renew a steadfast spirit within me. [11] Do not cast me away from Your presence And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me. [12] Restore to me the joy of Your salvation And sustain me with a willing spirit. [13] Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, And sinners will be converted to You.

God does not expect us to have a perfect heart, but He does expect us to have a repentant heart, a David heart that always turns back and seeks God's favor and forgiveness.
