Heart of a Servant
Give me the heart of a servant,
Tender and faithful and true.
Fill me with love, then use me, O Lord,
So that the world can see You.

Matthew 25:35-40 (NASB95) — 35 'For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; 36 naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.' 37 "Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink? 38 'And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You? 39 'When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' 40 "The King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.'

This is a powerful verse speaking of judgment and some things that we will receive a reward for. I know from experience that helping people can be its own reward at times. I also know that it can be its own punishment at times. People that we help often do not respond the way that we anticipate. We can be become bitter in helping because we feel that we are not really doing any good. They may even scorn the gift, or speak badly of you.

Let me try to help you achieve peace as a giving person.

We do not give for a return in this life. We give for a return in the life to come. If we receive a reward here for what we do then we have received our reward (read the Sermon on the Mount). We must give freely, asking nothing in return. When Christ states not to let our left hand know what our right hand is doing, He means don't keep a record expecting a return. When it leaves your hand in God's work, it belongs to Him.

We give for us, not for the person receiving the gift. I know this is hard to understand. But we care because Christ told us to. Care so deeply that you have no regrets. Know in the end you have laid it all on the table and given all you can, because you are doing it for the Lord.

If I fail to achieve what I expect in giving because of my inadequacies, or personal failures, it bothers me.

If I fail to achieve what I expect knowing I did all I could do. If at the end I can look Christ in the eye and honestly say I gave everything. It's ok—I have peace in my service. I can lay it on the altar, offer it to God, and know it smells sweet to Him. God judges the gift, not the result of the gift.
