"In God's eyes, the greatest heroes of faith are not those who achieve prosperity, success, and power in this life, but those who treat life as a temporary assignment and serve faithfully, expecting their promised reward in eternity."

Rick Warren

In the Name of Faith

Once again, we are watching executions in the name of religion. ISIS, it appears, is such an extreme form of Islam that even Saudi Arabia has labeled them terrorists. As we continue to see death in the name of the faith of Islam, I asked myself, "What does Christ ask us to do by faith?"
Christ asks us to pray by faith, nothing doubting.
Christ asks us to love and honor each other.
Christ asks us to put others ahead of ourselves.
Christ asks us to pray for our enemies.
Christ asks us to love our enemies.
Christ asks us to turn the other cheek.

I could go on, but what a contrast is Islam to Christianity. There is, however, a much larger contrast. Islam follows the self-proclaimed prophet Mohammad. He is dead and buried in a tomb. Christianity follows the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who is not in a tomb!! He is risen and sits at the right hand of God. We believe that Christ died for this sinful world! That He came to seek and save the lost, calling His creation home to heaven.
