Our Heavenly Father's Day

What comes to mind when you consider the term "Father's Day?" Time spent with family reminiscing what wonderful things your dad did for you growing up? How he worked to love, guide, protect and provide for you? Is the first thing that comes to mind perhaps the Sunday celebration of "Father's Day" where you take/took the time to travel to his house and present to him your gifts of love, gratitude, and appreciation? Maybe it's a special meal as you and your siblings all gather around the same table to eat, enjoy, and celebrate? Now, granted, for some, there may be a far sadder stigma attached to "Father's Day" because their dads were somewhat less of a father than God desires that they should have been.

However, no matter what it is that may come to mind for you when you hear the term "Father's Day," one thing is for sure: If you are a blood-bought and adopted child of the living God (Gal. 3:26-27), your perfect, loving, and adoring heavenly Father certainly worth celebrating every day in every way—but especially and in a special way on this, His special, "Father's Day!" He brought us forth because He wanted, and it was His will to have us (Jms. 1:18). Every good thing we have is from Him (Matt.7:7-11, Js. 1:17). Every good thing heaven has to offer we have been given by our heavenly Father in Christ Jesus (Eph. 1:3-10). He guides, provides, nurtures, protects, strengthens, comforts, leads, teaches, matures, directs and disciplines us—all for our own good, growth, and godliness. But He does so with mercy, pity, and compassion, remembering our frailties (Ps. 103:8-14). He is truly "our God and Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting consolation and good hope by grace" (2 Thess. 2:16).

And so, we celebrate Him. We come together with His other blood-bou8ght children—our spiritual siblings in Christ—bearing our gifts of love, adoration, and appreciation, as we gather together within His house (2 Ptr. 2:4-5; 1 Tim. 3:15). It is there that we sing His praises and give Him thanks (Eph. 5:19-20; Col. 3:16-17; Hebs. 3:15). It is there, on His specially set-aside day, that we present Him with our gifts (1 Cor. 16:1-2). And it is only and especially there and on His special day, that we hav ethe priviledge of sharing in the most sacred, special, and meaningful meal ever proficed, as we gather around the table of the Lord together (1 Cor. 10:16-17, 11:23-25; Acts 20:7).

You see, after all He's done for us, our heavenly Father is far too special to celebrate only occasionally or annually. Every first day of the week is our heavenly Father's Day! Let us be determined not to miss it for the world!
