Four things let us ever keep in mind:
God hears prayer,

Prayers Before God

Prayers in the bible are represented as much more than just words...they are imagery. Prayers are physical, and represented as something that are in the very throne room of God.

Cornelius was not a Jew, but God sent salvation to his house largely because of his prayers which scripture states were a memorial before God.

Acts 10:4 [4] And fixing his gaze on him and being much alarmed, he said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and alms have ascended as a memorial before God.

John tells us that the prayers of the saints are powerful, surrounding God as incense. The angel takes the incense, hurls it to the ground, and it becomes powerful. Prayers take form and function; they are much more than just words.

Revelation 5:8 [8] golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

In our prayer life, we often think that our prayers are just a vapor that dissipates as soon as it leaves our mind. But, if we picture our prayers as a memorial in the throne room of God, something physical and lasting, or if we picture our prayers as filling a bowl of incense that is emitting smoke that surrounds God, or if we picture our prayers as incense that the angel scoops out of the bowl and can use to effect change upon the earth, we would, I think, pray more fervently, more often, and with more expectation.

As a final thought, if your prayers are building a memorial in God's throne room, how big would your memorial be?
