First Name Basis

When I was a child in school, I always had to address my teachers as Mrs. or Mr. and their last name. I had many teachers who I never knew their first name. I, later in life, became acquainted with some of my teachers outside the classroom. As we became better acquainted, they would often say just call me by my first name. That was a big thing for me, that I could be on a first name basis with someone who I had a great deal of respect for. This also worked the other way, when a person who I deemed of great importance, would see me, and address me, by my first name.

Using the first name of a person carries importance. It speaks of familiarity, and it speaks of equal value.

Jesus knows our name! In Revelation, John reveals that, if you are saved, your name is recorded in the book of life. Jesus not only knows our name, but He has it written down. It is amazing to have a king and savior who knows the names of those in His kingdom. Just think, when you are praying, the creator of the universe is saying, "yes put your name here."

The fact that Christ knows our name not only speaks of His relationship with us, but it also speaks of His recognition that we are fellow heirs with Him in the Kingdom, His familiarity with us.

God was always so far off and unapproachable in the Old Testament. Mankind was forbidden to be in direct contact with God and live, except under certain conditions. With Jesus,

You and I have the ability to be on a first name basis with Jesus, and therefore, God. We can pray to God directly in the name of Jesus Christ, walking with confidence into the presence of God through His name. Most importantly, we can be found sinless, in the presence of God, on the day of judgment, through the blood of the savior, who knows our name.
