My journey is so similar to everyone else's journey, because we all are human. We all have been defeated by the powers of darkness, and we all find redemption in the light of Christ.

The Author of Light

Thomas Kincaid may have been the painter of light. If you have ever observed his paintings, you will see that light plays a key role, You are almost drawn to the light, its warmth and security. The Apostle John, however, is the author of light. He portrays Jesus as light more than any other bible writer.

Why? Because light enlightens. Light brings things into view. Jesus revealed the mystery of God to mankind. Jesus enlightened us to our darkened state, but above that, He, by His life, draws us into the warmth and security of His Light. Jesus was the manifestation and prefect representation of God.

John 1:9 (NASB95) — There was the true Light which, coming into the world, enlightens every man.

Light exposes darkness. During world war II, men on board ships were forbidden to even light a cigarette. The light from a cigarette could be seen for miles away at sea and expose them to the enemy. The light of Christ exposed the evil of mankind, and Jesus as revealed through John states that evil hates light because it does not like to be exposed. When we do what is right in an evil world, like the cigarette, our light can be seen for miles away and it exposes darkness.

John 3:19–20 (NASB95) — 19 "This is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil. 20 "For everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come to the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed.

We should want to walk in light—all the time. We should not walk in darkness or shadows. In heaven, there will be no darkness because Jesus will be our light. But, even now, Jesus is our light. By His example and His word, a path of light has been left for us to follow that leads to the source of all light, Jesus Christ.

John 11:9 (NASB95) — 9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

Read John this week, the author of light.
